

(<https://euvabeco.eu>)

Welcome to

EUVABECO PROJECT

The COVID-19 crisis reshaped global vaccination strategies, leading to the swift development of innovative practices. The EUVABECO project, funded by the European Commission's EU4Health program, aims to equip European Union Member States with validated implementation plans for these practices, accommodating diverse contexts to enable cross-border deployment.

News

EUVABECO speaker spotlights digital vaccine future at Saarbrücken "Vaccination – Today and Tomorrow" forum (<https://euvabeco.eu/news/euvabeco-speaker-spotlights-digital-vaccine-future-at-saarbrucken-vaccination-today-and-tomorrow-forum/>)

Swedish stakeholders briefed on EUVABECO's ePIL and EVC pilots (<https://euvabeco.eu/news/swedish-stakeholders-briefed-on-euvabecos-epil-and-etc-pilots/>)

(<https://euvabeco.eu/news/euvabeco-shares-insights-at-international-summit-on-vaccine-coding-standards/>)

EUVABECO Shares Insights at International Summit on Vaccine Coding & Standards
(<https://euvabeco.eu/news/euvabeco-shares-insights-at-international-summit-on-vaccine-coding-standards/>)

Coordinated by the University of Crete, EUVABECO will unite 14 partners from 9 countries, operating on a total budget of EUR 8.44 million.

This includes a EUR 6.75 million contribution from the EC and EUR 1.69 million in partner co-funding.

The EUVABECO project was selected under Call EU4H-2022-PJ-5 (EU for Health), Topic EU4H-2022-PJ-16, and is identified by the grant number 101132545

Learn more
(<https://euvabeco.eu/about/>)

Partners

A strong team of medical practitioners, public health authorities, vaccinology experts, e-Health operators and industrial suppliers.

(<https://euvabeco.eu/partners/>)